

East Indies Bali Pomelo Pink Gin Scoops Double Gold at Bartender Spirits Awards

East Indies Gin continues its impressive medal run with a double gold for Bali Pink Pomelo Gin, and a back to back gold for Archipelago Dry Gin at the 2023 Bartender Spirits Awards. “The double gold is really a special accolade, this year only 4 gins won a double gold so it really shows that the quality of our spirits can not only compete on the world stage, but win” says Spice Islands Distilling Co. General Manager, Richard Irving.

The bartender spirits awards are unique in that the judges are a panel from the top bartenders and alcohol buyers in the world. The panel blind tasted hundreds of gins with only a select few winning gold or double gold accolades. East Indies Bali Pink Pomelo Gin earned a lofty 96 points with & Archipelago Dry Gin scoring a solid 92 point, scoring higher than many well known gins such as Tanqueray 10 and Citadelle gin.

The consecutive Double Gold medals and subsequent back-to-back Gold medals awarded to East Indies Gin eloquently underscore its exceptional quality and innovative craftsmanship by Spice Islands Distilling Co. These achievements celebrate not only the distinct Indonesian botanicals showcased in the gin but also highlight the skillful artistry that has led to its creation. The accolades serve as a testament to the dedication of the distillery in harmonizing unique flavors and honoring the rich heritage of Indonesia.
