

Festive Spirits, Familiar Sips No Matter Where You Are

The festive season calls for more than just good company. It's about finding the right place to toast the year. Wherever your journey leads, there's always a bar that feels like home, especially when you spot a familiar name on the menu.

These destinations remind us that celebration travels effortlessly across continents each offering a distinct way to celebrate, with a touch of Indonesia in every pour.

JUNGLE BALLROOM

An award-winning nightlife destination inspired by the vibrant flavours and wild beauty of Southeast Asia.

With a cocktail menu rooted in the region's rich bounty, the expert team delivers imaginative drinks in an unforgettable setting. From neon-lit tunnels to the jungle-inspired atmosphere, every detail invites you on a bold, immersive journey.

One of the standout serves is Java, a cocktail that bridges tradition and modern craft through layers of tropical depth. Combining orange, Nusantara Cold Brew, East Indies Bali Pomelo Pink Gin, and Amaro Lucano, it offers a balance of citrus brightness and earthy richness, a true reflection of the archipelago's diverse spirit.

REPUBLIC BAR SINGAPORE

Located in the Ritz-Carlton, Republic Bar takes inspiration from the revolutionary spirit of the 1960s. The design blends mid-century modern aesthetics with a touch of Singaporean heritage, creating an atmosphere that's both stylish and nostalgic.

One of their standout creations is the Woman of the Year, a cocktail that combines East Indies Bali Pomelo Pink Gin with sparkling wine, Cointreau, ginger chilli honey, citrus, and edible gold stars. This drink doesn't just taste exquisite—it tells a story of boldness and celebration, much like the era it represents.

SYNTHESIS SINGAPORE

Hidden in the busy Suntec City Tower 4, Synthesis is a unique restaurant and cocktail bar that mixes modern Chinese flavors with the ideas of traditional Chinese medicine (TCM). At first, it looks like an old Chinese medicine hall filled with wooden drawers, glass jars, and nostalgic “mama shop” touches. But once you step through the hidden entrance, you’ll find a sleek, neon-lit bar where old traditions meet modern style.

The real magic of Synthesis is in its cocktails. Instead of the usual bar drinks, the menu features creative mixes made with herbs, TCM-inspired ingredients, and local flavors, each crafted with care and imagination.

One of the highlights is the Unusual Remedy, a mix of Nusantara Cold Brew Coffee Liqueur, grapefruit coffee, whiskey, and house-made ginger honey foam. It’s rich and refreshing at the same time, the kind of drink that wakes you up gently and leaves you feeling relaxed.

These bars aren’t just about the cocktails, they’re about the moments you create while enjoying them. With the unique touch of East Indies Gin and Nusantara Cold Brew, every sip tells a story, blending flavours and history in a way that feels both familiar and fresh. So, next time you’re in Singapore, let these venues guide you to a night worth remembering.
